UGLY TEMPER SHOWN.

Frequent Clashes Between Nonunion Drivers and Riotous Mobs.

IMPORTED NEGROES ARE ATTACKED.

A Crowd of Strike Sympathizers Capture a Wagon Loaded With Hams And Appropriate the Same Before Police Arrive.

Chicago, June 5.—The strike of 1,300 drivers for 10 department stores was settled. Terms not given.

Chicago, June 5.—Disturbances attendant upon the packing house teamsters' strike broke out afresh when a wagon belonging to ex-Alderman Duddleston, driven by a nonunion man, tried to land a load of hams and bacon at the station of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad.

A crowd of strike sympathizers set upon the driver, overturned his wagon and stole his meat. The driver, after belaboring some of his assailants with a club, ran from the scene and when a patrol wagon full of policemen, with a number of officers on foot, arrived, the crowd scattered.

A tense feeling prevails over all the city. Down town street crossings are almost devoid of officers, but the City hall resembles an army barracks, with hundreds of blue coated men drawn up in squads waiting for repetitions of Tuesday's rioting.

A pitched battle occurred between a crowd of negroes, imported from St. Louis, to take the places of the striking yard teamsters, and strikers, at Fifty-fifth street and Center avenue, in which six negroes were badly injured, two possibly mortally.

The substitutes were driving wagons when they were assaulted. Many of their assailants were armed with ice picks they had taken from wagons, and in the fight the negroes were badly lacerated by these weapons. One man had his thigh broken and was injured internally. The imported negroes number about 50.

At the stock yards attempts were made to relieve the semi-meat famine that is oppressing the hotels and eating houses. Early in the morning a caravan of six wagons—two from Armour's, two from Swifts and one each from Nelson Morris and Schwarzschild & Sulzberger's plants—started under the escort of a patrol of 15 policemen toward the down town districts to supply stores with meat.

At 9 o'clock an imposing caravan of 38 loads of beef, interspersed with five busses containing policemen, came out of the stock yards amid hoots and cries of derision from the crowd. It looked not unlike a well guarded wagon train of some small army. Of the wagons, 16 belonged to Swift & Company, three to Schwarzschild & Sulzberger, nine to Armour & Company, five to Nelson Morris & Company, four to Libby, McNeill & Libby, and one to the Anglo-American company.

The large meat caravan reached the Illinois Central depot, at Twelfth street, at 10 o'clock, accompanied by a constantly increasing crowd. During the unloading of meat at the depot the mob showed its ugly temper by throwing coal and bricks, but the well armed police guard served to check serious demonstrations.

With Drawn Revolvers.

Disturbances due to the teamsters' strike increased in ferocity and frequency. Policemen in a number of instances had to draw their revolvers to protect themselves. Several of them had their clubs not only taken from them, but used against them. The hospitals began to feel the effect of the battling by the increased number of patients, and the police stations were scarcely able to hold the rioters arrested. One of the most serious riots broke out at Congress and State, and Harrison and State streets. By some maneuver, the strikers succeeded in dividing the 38 wagon caravans (the second one to leave the yards), so that the front of it lay at Congress street, on State, and the rear at Harrison. While the vanguard battled with a crowd, which hurled broken bottles, stale eggs and other missiles, including spools of thread thrown by women sympathizers in the crowd, the rear guard was called upon to defend itself against a more serious attack.

At this place the mob made a desperate assault on the drivers, but was compelled to turn its attention to the police, who came up on the run. Twice the blue coats hurled themselves against the infuriated men, and twice they were rebuffed and crowded back. It was the most desperate clash the police have had with citizens in years. In some instances the strikers and their sympathizers wrenched clubs from the policemen, and used them against their owners. Meanwhile several men had gained a position of advantage on the elevated loop, from which they fired missiles at the officers. In this way Officer John McGuire was hit in the head with a horse shoe, and so seriously injured that he had to be taken to a hospital.

An incident of the fight was the smashing of an automobile, in which were seated a gentleman and a companion. The machine was caught in one of the blockades and smashed to splinters. Another machine, in which were two women, was caught in a similar predicament. The occupants were so frightened by the riot about them that they were on the point of fainting when rescued by police.

STREETCAR EMPLOYES Propose That the Magnates Shall Obey the Ten-Hour Law.

Providence, June 5.—Every streetcar line in Rhode Island, barring those in Newport, in Woonsocket, in the Scituate and in Foster, which are independent companies, was tied up at midnight. This was the result of a decision reached by Division 200 of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees at a special meeting.

A 10-hour bill for street railway employees was unanimously adopted by the general assembly last fall. It was to go into effect last Sunday. On Saturday the United Traction company posted notices to the effect that the 10-hour act was unconstitutional, and that it was the intention to test it in the supreme court.

Division No. 200 sent an ultimatum to the United Traction company, which is about to be controlled by a Philadelphia syndicate. The demand included a specific observance of the 10-hour law; that all employees who are now receiving more than $2.25 a day shall continue to have the same wage for 10 hours' work, and that all others shall be paid 20 cents an hour for 10 consecutive hours.

Mitchell's Movements.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 5.—There was much speculation around strike headquarters over the purpose of President Mitchell's visit to Scranton, where he saw some of the national railway labor union leaders. Mr. Mitchell returned from Scranton, and all attempts to get him to talk about the nature of his conference with Frank P. Sargent, the chief of the locomotive firemen, was futile. All he would say was that his call upon Sargent was merely a social one. It is believed, however, that a new move of some sort, in which the railroads may be involved, is among the possibilities of the near future. The entire region was reported quiet at starting time. At only two places in the Wyoming valley were there any signs of a demonstration against the men who are working the pumps. At Miners Mills, a crowd gathered early and met each trolley car as it came into the town. As the workmen got off the car under the protection of the coal and iron police they were hooted and called uncomplimentary names. There was no attempt at violence.

Military Prisoners Released.

San Francisco, June 5.—The prison doors opened for 17 ex-volunteer soldiers, who have been undergoing sentence at Alcatraz Islands. After serving from some 18 months to three years, both in prisons of the Philippine Islands and the local military prisons, these men will once more be free. The men will be released under the decision of Judge Sanborn, which the supreme court has sustained, that the volunteer soldier can not be tried by officers of the regular army, or other branches of the service.

Coal Operator's Views.

Huntington, W. Va., June 5.—A prominent West Virginia coal operator said here: "Many of the individual operators of the state will accede to the demands of miners before Saturday, but every corporation and some individual operators, who are in the coal combination, will not. It will be a hard fight."

No Change.

Celina, O., June 5.—The Democratic congressional convention started in without any material changes from the ballot of the previous day. The first ballot gave Adkins 78, Garber 110, Loree 67 and Good 1. For two hours this ballot was cast without a change.

Washington, June 5.—By a vote of 48 to 30 the senate passed the Lodge Philippine government bill, Mr. McLaurin (Dem., S. C.), supporting the measure with his vote, and three Republicans, Messrs. Hoar, Mason and Wellington, voting against it. The debate on the bill has been in progress over seven weeks, all amendments offered by the minority being rejected.

BEF TRUST ON RACK

Certain Packers Restrained From Doing Business In New York.

ACTION OF THE MISSOURI COURTS.

One Concern Offers to Pay a Fine and Take a Charter—Probable Removal of Cases to Federal Courts.

Albany, June 5.—Supreme Court Justice Chester granted permanently an injunction restraining certain beef packing companies of the west from carrying on business in this state, in violation of the provisions of the Donnelly anti-trust law. The order was served upon the representatives of the concerns in this city and Troy, and will be served on others throughout the state as quickly as they can be reached. It was obtained upon the affidavit of D. W. Meredith, a former manager of Swift & Company.

The injunction is directed against Armour & Company, Swift & Company, Cudahy Packing company, Hammond company, Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Company, domestic and foreign corporations, and against Nelson Morris, Edward Morris and Ira M. Morris, co-partners, carrying on business as Nelson Morris & Company. Their managers are restrained from fixing the prices to be charged for meat.

They are also enjoined from acting under any agreement whereby the price of labor shall be affected.

Action In Missouri Courts.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 5.—Attorneys Hagerman and New appeared before the supreme court and asked the court to allow the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Packing company to accept the first count in the attorney general's information against them to the effect that the company is operating in this state without a charter from the secretary of state. Messrs. Hagerman and New stated that if the court would accept that, the company would pay the $1,000 fine imposed by law, and at once take out a charter, and then this company would be upon an equal footing with the packing companies in the proceedings against them for violating the anti-trust law.

Attorney General Crow stated that he was willing to accept the fine if it would not bar him from proceeding against this company, the same as the other companies. At this time the court announced that it had overruled the motion of all the packing companies to quash the information filed against them by the attorney general. The court then took a recess and later it will announce whether or not it will accept the offer of Schwarzschild & Sulzberger to pay the fine and take out a charter and combine with the other companies in the suit, and also fix the date on which the attorneys for the beef companies must file their returns and pleadings to the information filed against them. When the court announced that it had overruled the motion to quash the information in the case, Mr. New announced to the court that he wished to enter exceptions to the overruling of the motion. This was regarded by the court and the attorney general as the first indication that the beef trust would carry the case to the federal court.

A Seaman's Good Luck.

Berlin, June 5.—Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia has exchanged presents with an ordinary seaman of his squadron. When Prince Henry's great grandmother, Queen Louise, was fleeing from Napoleon, in 1806, she took shelter one night in the dwelling of a peasant. The next morning the queen gave her peasant host a beautiful watch, together with certain documents, which were preserved in this peasant family as heirlooms. This watch came eventually to be carried by a sailor on a vessel of Prince Henry's squadron. Prince Henry noticed the sailor's time piece, examined and admired it, whereupon the owner presented it to the prince. The gift was accepted by Prince Henry with courteous expressions of his thanks. Later the prince made inquiries concerning the sailor's aspiration, and as a result he secured his entrance to the school of navigation at Hamburg, and gave him money with which to pay all the expenses of a course there.

Rangoon, British Burmah, June 5.—The British steamer Camorta, from Madras for this port, with 600 passengers, all natives, which was believed to have foundered on May 6 in a cyclone, has been discovered sunk at Baragua Flats, in the Irrawaddy Delta, directly in the track of shipping. The topmasts of the vessel protrude above the surface of the water.

INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

Proceedings of State Convention and Names of Candidates.

Indianapolis, June 5.—The Democratic state convention was called to order by W. H. O'Brien, chairman of the state central committee. Chairman O'Brien then called for the report of the committee on rules and permanent organization, which recommended that John W. Kern of Indianapolis be made permanent chairman. The chairman was greeted with great applause as he came upon the platform. After expressing his thanks for the honor given him he delivered a speech on the issues of the day. The name of W. J. Bryan was greeted with loud cheers when it was mentioned by Mr. Kern.

Chairman B. F. Shively of South Bend, of the committee on resolutions, then read the platform. Upon motion of Mr. Shively the report was adopted unanimously and with much enthusiasm.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for secretary of state. Alfred Schoenover of Attica and O. L. Ballou of Lagrange being placed in nomination.

After the rollcall was finished on the first ballot and before the vote was announced Chairman Kern announced that the chairman of the committee on resolutions desired to offer an additional resolution. Mr. Shively then offered a resolution declaring that the Democrats of Indiana bore testimony to the fitness of Thomas Taggart for the position of chairman of the Democratic national committee, and urged his selection for the place. The motion was carried with enthusiasm.

The result of the first ballot was announced as follows: Total, 1,547; necessary to a choice, 774. Schoenover 828; Ballou, 719. The former was declared the nominee, and upon motion of Mr. Ballou the nomination was declared to be unanimous.

For attorney general William E. Stillwell of Gibson county was nominated by acclamation.

FIVE WOUNDED.

Fatal Conflict Between Steel Strikers and Other Workmen.

Edwardsville, Ills., June 5.—A riot broke out between several hundred striking molders and nonunion employees of the American Steel and Foundry company, and as a result five men, two negroes, nonunion workers, and three white strikers, were shot, two of the latter fatally. As far as can be learned, the names of the wounded are: John Buffington, 24, shot in the back, bullet lodging in the kidneys, condition serious; S. B. McFerrin, 35, shot in the right arm; Alexander Matthews, 30, shot in the left leg. The trouble broke out when a train load of employees of the steel company, who had not struck, reached Granite City. As the men were proceeding through a narrow lane to their work in the mills, they were first threatened by the strikers and then assailed with stones. Revolvers were then brought into play and several shots were fired by both parties. Two nonunion men, negroes, and three white strikers received wounds.

Preacher Confesses to Arson.

Santa Cruz, Cal., June 5.—Rev. James Laurier Rogers, formerly a well known Baptist minister, who recently embraced Mohammedanism, has confessed himself guilty of arson, and is now in custody. He set fire to several buildings at a dairy, where he was working for the benefit of his health. His motive for the crime, he says, was revenge on those who had compelled him to do menial service. The fire destroyed his clerical library, three ministerial suits and a gold watch presented to him by his former congregation at Ocala, Fla. He will be examined as to his sanity.

Price of Steel Rails.

New York, June 5.—The steel rail pool is believed to have fixed the price of steel rails for 1903 at $28 a ton, the rate now prevailing. A large number of orders for next year already have been placed, among them several from important railroads in both the west and east. Heretofore the pool has not fixed its price until fall, but owing to the large demand and to the fact that the entire production for 1902 is already sold it was necessary this year for the manufacturers to take earlier action than usual.

Bellefonte, O., June 5.—The fifth annual reunion of the Old Maids' society was held in Heiple's grove, west of this city. The picnic is an annual affair to which none but eligible maidens are invited, and to which no man dares add happiness for the occasion. The spinsters carried out a unique program and romped about the green with the zest of a sweet girl of 16 summers.

WITH TITLE AND CASH

Will General Kitchener Be Rewarded by King Edward of England.

RAISED TO THE RANK OF VISCOUNT.

His Majesty's Request For Fifty Thousand Pounds From Parliament Will Be Opposed by Irish Nationalists.

London, June 5.—In the house of commons the government leader, A. J. Balfour, presented a message from King Edward as follows: "His majesty, taking into consideration the eminent services rendered by Lord Kitchener and being desirous, in recognition of such services, to confer on him some signal mark of his favor, recommends that the king should be enabled to grant Lord Kitchener £50,000.

John Dillon, William Redmond and Swift MacNelli, Irish Nationalists, announced their intention of opposing the grant at every stage.

A resolution giving effect to his majesty's message will be discussed at once.

It was announced during the day that Lord Kitchener had been created a viscount by King Edward.

Six Votes Against It.

Pretoria, June 5.—The ballot of the Boers at Vereeniging resulted in 54 votes in favor of surrender and six against it. Preparations are being made here for the surrender of the Boer commandos, which will take place on the race course. All the Boers are allowed perfect freedom. There will be thanksgiving services Sunday, June 8, on the church square, in which it is hoped the Boers will participate. The women in the concentration camps are anxious to return to their homes immediately, but this will be impossible until a system of supply depots for the outlying districts is established.

General Baden Powell is arranging for the distribution of mounted constabulary in various districts. The police, railroad and telegraphs will be handed over to the civil authorities as soon as possible, and the restrictions of martial law will be gradually relaxed.

Important Diplomatic Changes.

Washington, June 5.—Two important changes in the diplomatic representation at Washington were announced. The Hon. Michael Herbert succeeds the late Lord L'uncletope as British ambassador and Senor De Ojeda succeeds the Duke de Arcos as Spanish minister. Notice of Mr. Herbert's appointment came to the state department through the British embassy here. It simply confirmed the judgment of officials as to the succession, and is welcomed by them. At present Mr. Herbert occupies a place without a counterpart in the American diplomatic service. He is first secretary of embassy at Paris, but with the rank of minister plenipotentiary. In very few instances does the British government employ an official of such high rank in the office of secretary of embassy. The change in the Spanish legation here came as a distinct surprise to all but the intimate friends of the Duke de Arcos. He came to the United States as the first Spanish minister after the war, and naturally his position was a very delicate one, requiring the exhibition of infinite tact to avoid unpleasant incidents.

Ugly Railroad Wreck.

Redding, Cal., June 5.—The southbound Oregon express on the Southern Pacific was wrecked near Clear Creek, four miles from this city, about 11 p. m. The accident was caused by a half open switch, which had evidently been left in that condition by some unknown person. The train is a double-header, and was running down grade at great speed. Both engines were thrown in the ditch and completely wrecked. Engineer J. M. White and Fireman Fred Taffel of the forward engine were thrown under the wreckage and crushed to death, their bodies being fearfully mangled. The mail car was thrown across the track and all of the passenger coaches were ditched.

IMPORTING MEN.

Three Hundred Strangers Arrive on a Special Train from Philadelphia.

Hazleton, Pa., June 5.—The 11 imported men, who were kidnapped at Hazletonbrook colliery by the striking mine workers, were sent back to Philadelphia. District President Duffy announced that this was the last batch that would be deported at the expense of the union. About 300 men from Philadelphia reached Hazleton on a special train. They will be put to work around the mines.

THE CROP OUTLOOK.

As Viewed by the Weather Bureau, in Kentucky—Conditions Favorable to Wheat, Corn and Tobacco.

[For week ending June 3.]
Very cool weather prevailed until Saturday, when it turned warmer. Light frost occurred on the 28th in many localities, but no serious damage was reported. The rainfall was generally light, the heaviest being in the eastern and north-central portions of the State.

The cool weather was rather favorable to wheat and it shows some improvement, but it has headed low and generally with short heads; it is thin on the ground and will give a very light yield.

Considerable tobacco, probably about three-fifths of the crop, has been set out. It is doing fairly well, but grasshoppers and cutworms are injuring it in some places. The balance of the crop will be set this week, if favorable weather occurs. In the central and eastern sections plants are scarce and the acreage will be reduced considerably on that account.

Corn did not make much progress during the week on account of cool weather, but it is generally in very fair condition and only needs warm weather to push it forward.

Gardens are doing quite well. Irish potatoes are making satisfactory progress. Strawberries and cherries are ripe and being marketed in good quantities. Apples are dropping considerably and peaches are very scarce.

Farm work was delayed in the north-central counties on account of the ground being too wet to work, but it is fairly well up elsewhere.

Whisky Medicines.

The temperance press is emphasizing the danger to the home in the use of "medicines" which are loaded with whisky or alcohol. In this respect, as well as in the remarkable character of their cures, Dr. Pierce's medicines differ from other preparations. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Favorite Prescription" contain no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant, and are equally free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. Every family should have a copy of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent absolutely free, on receipt of stamps to pay expenses of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. G. M. Williams has been granted a patent for an envelope and stamp moistener that he invented some months ago.

Keystone, W. Va., June 5.—Twelve hundred Hungarian miners have joined the United Mine Workers' organization here.

Mr. Parker Hord, son of Squire and Mrs. Abner Hord, of Wedonia, through Congressman J. N. Keloe has been appointed as a cadet to Annapolis Naval Academy. He expects to leave at once to accept the place. Mr. Hord is a young man of excellent character and manners, and his friends predict for him a bright future.

WALLINGFORD-LONGWORTH.

Former Maysillian Weds Eldest Daughter of the late Judge Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati.

[Enquirer.]

The Church of the Advent, East Walnut Hills, was the scene Tuesday of a very pretty wedding, with Miss Aune Rives Longworth and Mr. Buckner Wallingford as the central figures. The bride is the eldest daughter of the late Judge Nicholas Longworth. Mr. Wallingford belongs to a fine Kentucky family that has for generations been leaders in that aristocratic stronghold, Maysville.

The church presented a beautiful appearance with its broad aisle in snowy white and a great cluster of ascension lilies and long-stemmed red roses, tied with great bows and streamers of white ribbon, at each pew head. This flower-guarded aisle led to the chancel, which was a bower of bloom. At the chancel rail was erected a series of arches of delicate green ferns leading to a central open arch framed in a profusion of fragrant roses. Beneath this the bridal pair knelt for the benefit of the church. The altar and chancel window were masses of bloom, and on either side of the chancel were rows of dwarf bay trees quaintly trimmed. The choir benches were also done in green.

The bridegroom and his best man, Mr.

Wm. C. Herron, awaited the bride at the altar with Rev. Mr. Guthrie, of Fern Bank, and Rev. Mr. Tyler, rector of the Advent, who officiated impressively. Just past the stroke of noon down the flower-bordered pathway came the bride with her brother, Hon. Nicholas Longworth, to the immortal music of the "Lohengrin" wedding march.

She is tall, with a beautiful figure, and carried herself with grace and dignity.

Her bridal gown was of white satin, veiled with white chiffon; plaited clusters of gardenias decorated the bodice and held the veil, which was a superb scarf of Brussels pointe and worn off the face. Her jewels were a necklace of pearls and diamonds and a rope of pearls falling over the bodice. The bridal bouquet was an immense and sumptuous oval of violet-tinted orchids and valley lilies fringed with maidenhair ferns.

The bride was attended by her sister Clara,

Comtesse de Chambrun, who came over from Paris to be matron of honor on this happy occasion. She was looking extremely well in a gown of pale gray veiling, decorated in Irish point, and carried a great bunch of American Beauties, whose stems almost touched the floor. Her hat was a pretty confection of white and black chiffon and lace.

The bride's maid was Miss Rebecca

Anderson, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis C. Anderson and a niece of Mr. Wallingford. She wore a girlish gown of white organdie, with a wide blue sash. There was a touch of blue on her broad white hat and on her brown braids, and with her arms full of pink roses she was an ideal young brideemaid. The ushers were Messrs. J. V. B. Scarborough,

Mr. F. O. Suire, Mr. A. S. J. Holt, Mr. J. S. Neave, Mr. Blair Painter, of Pittsburgh, and Mr. Wm. A. Stuart, all men of experience and looking extremely complacent with the bride's favors, fragrant cape jasmines just up from the Gulf of Mexico, as a coat flower.

There was no reception after the ceremony, but a small wedding breakfast at Rockwood, the Longworth place on the East Hill. To this were bidden only the prominent politicians in Paterson. It is alleged Simon was receiver for the thieves and he bought the goods and shipped them to Landhur, N. J., whence they were sent to a mill in another place and from there forwarded to New York as the product of that mill. He was released on $2,000 bail.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallingford will spend their honeymoon in New York, and on their return reside on the East Hill.

Henry W. Ray has started his soda water fountain for the season.

Daniel Miller, Sr., an old and respected citizen of Ripley, died a few days ago after a long illness of heart trouble. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dawson attended the funeral.

The will of the late Robert A. Toup has been partly proved by the oath of Judge G. S. Wall and continued for further proof. It leaves all property to his wife, who is named as executrix with-out bond.

John D. Potts, Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio road, whose headquarters are at Richmond, Va., will succeed Mr. C. B. Ryan as Assistant General Passenger Agent at Cincinnati.

County Clerk Wood's report, filed in the Circuit Court, of taxes &c., received on debts, license, &c., since last term of court shows a total of $1,593. Circuit Clerk Woodward reported a total of $34 received on new suits &c.

Maysville Red men are planning already for the Great Council of Kentucky that will meet here next May. Henry W. Ray, James W. Fitzgerald, Thomas A. Davis, William T. Berry and Thomas M. Russell have been appointed by Wyandotte Tribe to arrange for the reception and entertainment of the Great Council.

At the earnest request of his many friends in the Sardis neighborhood, Dr. Ellis will give a lecture in the M. E. Church, South, in that place next Sunday evening on Europe. The lecture will be illustrated with 100 fine stereopticon views of the principal cities of Europe. The public cordially invited. Lecture to begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Jennie Dickson, of Orangeburg, who was graduated a few days ago by the Jessamine Female Institute, Nicholasville, has accepted a position as a member of the faculty of that institution for the next scholastic year. She is one of Mason's accomplished young women, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickson, and her many friends will be gratified to learn she has been thus honored by her Alma Mater.

For more than two months the Frank Owens Hardware Company have been obliged to turn away customers for the American woven wire field fence, as a consequence of not being able to have their orders filled, so great has been the demand for this article, though the manufacturers operate several large plants, which run night and day. An invoice of two car-loads that should have been here early in the spring has just arrived. The shipment comprises 12,000 rods, and a lorce under the able management of Captain Calhoun and Generals Wheeler and Miles is busy unloading and storing the goods to-day.

Silk Thief Arrested.

Now York, June 5.—Jacob Simon, a justice of the peace in Paterson, N. J., has been arrested on a charge of receiving stolen property. Frederick Kreyer, a silk manufacturer, was arrested later as an alleged accomplice. Numerous silk robberies recently from Paterson mills have puzzled the police and the arrests are the first move in an attempt to clear up the affair. Simon is a barber, whose shop has been the rendezvous of many of the prominent politicians in Paterson. It is alleged Simon was receiver for the thieves and he bought the goods and shipped them to Landhur, N. J., whence they were sent to a mill in another place and from there forwarded to New York as the product of that mill.

Thanks

You First!

Next to our watchfulness in our selection of goods for your approval, the month of May was one of the biggest business months we had in many years, but you know we merchants constantly endeavor to increase their business. In doing so the advantage to seller and buyer is "mutual." The more goods we sell the smaller the profit we can afford to charge. It is the volume of business that tells in the progressive and aggressive merchandising nowadays—the best of goods at prices not higher than other merchants want for ordinary goods is what the people want, and that is the kind they get from us.

We Must Make This Month's Business Bigger, if Anything, Than Last's!

and with that in view you will share in the profit-reducing system explained above. Our Stein-Bloch, Adler's, Garson, Meyer & Co.'s Clothing, our Stetson Hats, Manhattan Shirts and Hanan & Son and W. L. Douglas Shoes are an aggregation of merchandise that you do not find in any house in the State.

The secretions from the kidneys were dark and there was some inflammation of the bladder, evidenced from a sensation of scalding. Doan's Kidney Pills came to my knowledge and I procured them at J. The treatment soon restored the kidney secretions to a natural color, ended the inflammation and banished the pain from my back.
